Gamagemen Refuse to Shave Until After Game With Praying Colonels

INJURIES WILL PLAY
NO PART IN CONTEST

Gold and White Hopes to Win
Under Tutelage of Coach
Ed Kubale

By LAWRENCE CRUMP Centre vs. Kentucky, one of the classic feuds of southern football, will be renewed Saturday at 2 o'clock on Cheek Field in Danville.

The Praying Colonels, their back to the wall, will give the best they have to repulse the invasion of Coach Harry Gamage's powerful blue machine before the homecoming Centre alumni.

The Colonels will enter the game, decidedly the underdogs, but that means nothing at all in a Centre-State game. The Gold and White team always has an excellent chance to upset Kentucky's dark horse possibilities as an outstanding southern team.

For more than fifty years, teams from these two institutions have battled annually for football su-premaccy and until after the appearance of Harry Gamage as director of Wildcat pigskin destinies, the Colonels had been holding the edge.
The Centre team this year is coached by Ed Kubale, a member of Uncle Charlie Moran's great team that gained national prominence, who has yet to taste the sting of defeat at the hands of a Kentucky team.

'Cats Grow Whiskers

The Wildcats will present themselves Saturday in a badly bewhiskered condition. The boys have not shaved since last Friday and will not do so until the Colonels have been disposed of to the satisfaction of every man on the squad. Already "Red" Thompson, Bo Myers, and several others of the House of David youngsters present such an appearance that they wouldn't dare ask any co-ed for a date unless the deepest shades of night were covering their hairy visages. And we must not forget that boy from the Wild West who plays end and has an educated toe. Cavanaugh's beard is a striking reminder of the days of Sir Walter Raleigh, when beards were regarded as for "Shipwreck".
Kelly, some say that he doesn't shave as yet, and he will be able to face the Colonels with "a clean shave."

Grew Beards Two Years Ago

It will be remembered that the Wildcats played the game with Centre two years ago with a week's growth of beard on their faces. Covington wasn't old enough to shave at that time, but he was old enough to run the Gold and White boys to earth and do more than his bit toward making that surprising total of 53 points. From the looks of things this year, although it is going to be a hard battle, the whiskers are once more going to turn the tide of battle into a hair-pulling contest.
Scrimmage the first part of the week was just one splash after another for the Big Blue withal it was pleasing to the boys who have been practicing on ground so hard it felt like so much concrete. The team slipped and reeled about in the mud, making touchdowns result from sheer momentum by sliding across the goal line many times.
If Saturday should turn out to be wet day, the game will be perfectly at home; if the day is clear with no mud—well, everyone knows what those elusive backfield men can do when the track is fast.

All Injuries Are Healed

Injuries will play no part in the game Saturday and both camps will be able to put their best team on the field. The Colonels held the powerful Cincinnati St. X eleven last week with several of their outstanding men on the sidelines. These men will face the 'Cats Saturday.

Kentucky's starting lineup will be much the same as that of the previous games. Max Colker will hold down the center job, flanked on either side by Forquer and Thompson at guard. Wright and Yates and Andrews at tackle. Captain Covington may be shifted to quarterback in place of Spicer, who will not be able to start due to injuries received in the W. and L. tilt. Dick Richards is scheduled to make his initial appearance at the half back position with Tom Phipps at fullback. In the event that Richards does not start, Toth will hold forth at quarterback. Connie Rose, who has been handicapped by an injured ankle, has been shifted to a tackle position and may see service against the Colonels.

Traditional Centre fight, and the fact that scouts from rival camps will attend the game will prevent the Wildcats from rolling up any such score as was the case in 1927.

Centre Will Be Dangerous

Coach Gamage is working hard to prevent his charges from becoming over-confident about the weakness of the Danville team. The Wildcats' dressing rooms abound in signs encouraging them to remember the seriousness of the Centre game while the walls are plastered with the meagre margin of the encounter in 1928.

The game Saturday will be the last before the big push when Kentucky will meet Clemson, Alabama, V. M. I. and Tennessee in a quick succession of important conference games.

Campus Organization Sponsors Varsity "Ks" for Rifle Team45 Beauties Named in 1930 Kentuckian
Beauty Contest

Forty-five beauties of the University campus have filed their petitions and are candidates for the honor of appearing in the Beauty section of the 1930 Kentuckian. The flower of Kentucky feminism is reflected in the large list of candidates, and as Kentucky's name is synonymous with beauty, these girls have been brought forward to uphold the Blue Grass state's reputation.

The large number of entries more than fulfilled the highest expectations of the "Kentuckian" staff.
O'Rear E. Barnes, director of the 1930 beauty contest, announced yesterday that the pictures of the forty-five girls would be sent as soon as possible, to the two noted artists who will select the sixteen most beautiful girls. The results of these decisions will be announced in an early issue of The Kernel.

DeMille to Choose Winner

Cecil B. DeMille, noted motion picture director, will then pick from the sixteen winners the one girl who will be known as the "Most Beautiful Girl at the University of Kentucky." Mr. DeMille will also select seven beauties whose pictures will appear in the Kentucky beauty section. The remaining eight will appear in the favorite section.

The forty-five contestants had their last photographs for the contest made Tuesday and Wednesday.
The finished photographs will be forwarded to the two artists as soon as they are finished for judging.
The results will be published as soon as the judges have made their decision.

Director Barnes says that this year's contest is one of the most successful in the history of Kentuckian publications.

Practically every sorority on the campus is represented by one or more entries. Only one non-sorority girl is a contestant. This preponderance of sorority girls should be noted as a sign that the Greek maiden has a monopoly on the feminine loveliness of the University, however. There are many independent girls who should be contestants for the beauty crown, and the Kentuckian editors regret that only one from this group was entered.

"K" Dance in November

The annual "K" dance will be held in the latter part of November. The exact date has not been decided upon and will be announced in a subsequent issue of this paper. The forty-five contestants will be guests of honor at the dance. It is probable that each of the girls will be individually introduced during the dance. This has always proved a favorite one of the students and the "Kentuckian" staff hopes to make this the greatest in history.

The list of candidates follows:

Marjory Gould, non-sorority; Lucy Davis, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Elizabeth Board, Kappa Kappa Gamma pledge; Georgetta Walker, Kappa Kappa Gamma pledge; Doris Stry-ker, Kappa Kappa Gamma pledge; Jo Blackman, Kappa Kappa Gamma pledge; and Louise MacDonald, Kappa Kappa Gamma pledge. The Chi Omega sorority has eight contestants entered: Felician Ann Saunders, Betty Rhodes, Eleanor Swearingen, Tilly Ferguson, Mary
Moore Milton, Anne Rhodes, Mary Grace Heavridge, and Lois Adams.
The Delta Delta Delta entries are:
Mary Douglas, Jewell Martin, Alice Brunner, Mae Pate, Julia Marvin, and Mary Mary Armstrong. Kappa Delta nominees are Marian Sands, Mary Lou Rennaker, Dorothy Sewell, Virginia Wardup, Margaret Sturgeon, and Virginia Young.
Delta Zeta is represented by Sara Reynolds, Edythe Little, Elizabeth Crym, Virginia Mills, Margaret Wright, and Dale Smith. Zeta Tau Alpha, Rosina Rogers, Virginia
Huber, and Ruby Rogers. Alpha Xi
Delta, Katherine Davis, Sarah Smith, Natalie Bryson, and Laura Pettigrew.
Alpha Gamma Delta, Frances Hambrick, Ruth Wehle, Katherine Lawery, and Evelyn Ford. Molly McAffitt is the sole entry of Alpha Delta Theta.

University Professors Discuss Substitution of Quarter System
For Semester Plan at U. of K.

The quarter plan as opposed to the semester plan of university sessions was the subject for discussion at the first meeting of the Kentucky Chapter of the American Association of University Professors, which was held Thursday night, October 17, in McVey Hall.

About 75 men were present. The list included members of the faculty of Kentucky Wesleyan College, where the quarter system has been in effect for six years. Berea College, Transylvania College, Asbury College, and Eastern State Normal.
The discussion was led by Prof. M.
F. Ligon of the College of Education favoring the adoption of the quarter system, and Prof. James W.
Martin of the College of Commerce opposing it. Prof. H. Bruce Price also spoke.

First Firing Practice Is Held
By R. O. T. C. Officers in Buell Armory

FIRST MATCH TO BE HELD EARLY IN 1930

Captain Richard E. Gessford
Is Made Head of All Preliminary Work

After the initial practice period of the University rifle team Wednesday afternoon it was made known that several University organizations are making a definite effort to obtain the recognition of rifle competition as a minor sport. Scabbard and Blade has appointed a committee composed of Hayes Owen and Colvin to present the petition to the University Athletic Council.

If this plan is adopted by the University Athletic Council the actual training and coaching of the rifle team members will continue under the supervision of the Military department. Possibly Captain Richard E. Gessford will be appointed as an athletic coach over the new members of the rifle squad, to teach the new men the fundamentals of firing the regulation U. S. rifle.

Will Award Letters

Letters will be issued by the Athletic department upon the recommendation of a special member of the Military department who will serve in that capacity from year to year. Awarding of letters will be upon a very stringent basis and only a few men will receive this honor yearly.

Many universities throughout the country recognize rifle shooting as a minor sport and they award letters and sweaters yearly to a limited number of men on the rifle squad.
Purdue, Ohio State, Indiana, Florida, Alabama, Missouri, Princeton, John's Hopkins, and Georgia Tech are listed among the larger institutions granting letters for the participation of upperclassmen in R. O.
T. C. rifle firing.

Initial Training Starts

At present preliminary training of the University rifle team is being carried on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 8:30 to 10 o'clock in the morning, and from 12:30 till 2 o'clock, and 4 till 5 o'clock in the afternoon. On Tuesday and Thursday the new men may assemble for practice at Buell Armory from 8:30 till 10 o'clock in the morning and 12:30 till 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Any student on the University campus may take part in the preliminary practice even though they are not members of the R. O. T. C.
There are four steps in this initial training for the rifle team, namely:
sighting and aiming exercises, position exercises, trigger squeeze exercises, and examinations.

After the passing of the examinations the students are allowed to begin the actual practicing with rifles. Before the passage of the examination the rifles are absolutely prohibited. Captain Richard E. Gessford is in charge of the preliminary instructions.

Other than members of the University R. O. T. C. are prohibited from the firing at the University armory range. The Military Department is not allowed by the United States Department of War to furnish ammunition to anyone but R. O. T. C. members.

In previous seasons the University team has been very successful in matches with other colleges. Last year in 62 regular fired matches the University won out in 35 and tied three. The team fired in a match at Fort Benjamin Harrison on May 4, 1929, and won second place.
Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and the University of Cincinnati were participants.

Prospects Are Bright

Last year the first rifle match was held on January 19, and the first match this year is scheduled to be held sometime about the middle of January. Military officials of the University believe the Kentucky team will be among the leaders in the Fifth Corps Area this year.

The University team captured the Fifth Corps Area cup for proficiency in rifle fire in 1926 and 1927. Purdue won out in 1928, and Ohio State now holds the cup. If the Kentucky rifle team succeeds in winning again the cup will become the permanent possession of the University.

A committee of the faculty appointed by President McVey to report on the situation in all its phases before the University senate in December.

Members of the committee are:
Dean Paul P. Boyd, College of Arts and Sciences; Prof. W. E. Freeman, College of Engineering; Dean Edward West, College of Commerce; and Professor Horlacher, College of Agriculture. If the senate approves the plan, it will be submitted to the board of trustees, and if passed will probably go into effect next year.

Most of the men at the meeting favored the quarter plan after much discussion, although the final adoption depends upon whether the cost of operating the University would be greater than under the present semester plan. Although the majority of colleges and universities in this country use the semester plan, the quarter plan is employed by the University of Chicago and various other prominent institutions.

WILLIAM J. COOPER

Hon. William J. Cooper, United States Commissioner of Education and former state superintendent of schools in California, will be one of the principal speakers of the ence which convenes here today.

Mr. Cooper has long been one of the outstanding educational leaders of the country and is widely known as a very capable speaker. The meet-

Hall.

ALEXANDER WILL HEAD FRESHMEN

Election of Frosh Officers Terminates Campaign For Class Leadership Among University Students

The election of class officers for the year was terminated last night with the completion of the freshman election. J. D. Alexander was elected president of the Frosh by a bare plurality of twenty votes over Richard Neiser. Alexander is a Triangle.

More interest was shown in this freshman election than any other in the history of the University.
Starting out with more nominees than any other class, the Frosh waged a bitter political battle to land Alexander in the presidency.

When The Kernel went to press last night it was impossible to determine the outcome of the vice-presidential race and this vote for the president race of the freshman class.
Someone had apparently stuffed the vice-presidency will possibly be thrown out.

Jane Dyer, Alpha Gamma Delta sorority member, won out in the freshman secretary race over Ruth Wehle.

Council Sponsors Election

The election was sponsored and supervised by members of the Men's Student Council and Dean Melcher.
The final count of the freshman election was completed last night at 7 o'clock in the dean of men's office.

John C. Benson, Lexington, was unopposed for the senior class president in the election of senior officials held Monday, October 21. He is a senior in the College of Engineering, a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity, and cadet colonel of the University R. O. T. C.

Frances Baskett, Cynthia, was selected as vice-president of the fourth year class. She is a member of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.
She polled a total of 78 votes, 31
more than her nearest opponent, Frances Lital, Delta Zeta. Maude Van Buskirk, Chi Omega, was third with 25 votes.

D'Allis Chapman, Morganfield, was unopposed for secretary of the senior class. She is a member of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

Allen Wins Easily

In the junior election held Tuesday, Joe Allen of Morganfield, succeeded in vanquishing his opponents with a top heavy plurality. His nearest opponent S. M. Worthington was outstripped by over 100 votes, with L. G. "Floppy" Forquer running third. Allen is a junior in the College of Arts and Sciences and is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Margaret Cundiff, Lexington, defeated Mildred Little for vice-president of the junior class by over 50 votes. Miss Cundiff is enrolled in the College of Arts and Science and she is a member of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

Jane Clay Kenney, Paris, was unopposed for the secretaryship of the junior class.

Stewart Augustus, of Louisville, barely nosed out John "Shipwreck" Kelley in a close race for the presidency of the Sophomore class.
Wednesday, Augustus, who is a catcher on the varsity nine, defeated
"Shipwreck" Kelley, of football fame, by the mere majority of two votes. Augustus is registered in the Arts and Sciences college, and is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. Kelley is an S. A. E.
The final poll stood Kelley 147, Augustus 149.

Georgetta Walker, Lancaster, Kappa Kappa Gamma, was made vice-president over Ruby Rogers, Zeta Tau Alpha. Miss Walker's margin of victory was very small, however.

Eloise Dickinson, Delta Zeta, was unopposed for secretary of the Sophomore class.

"Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary"
Will Open at Guignol Monday

Prof. Frank Fowler Believes
Cast to Be One of Best
In Campus History

MRS. JOHN DURBIN
HOLDS TITLE ROLE

Miss Margie McLaughlin Will Reappear on Local Stage
As "Miss Mimms"

Theater-goers of the University and of Lexington will be given an opportunity of witnessing one of the most delightful comedies ever presented by a local cast, with the "first night" presentation of "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary," at the Guignol theater, Monday, October 28. The play will continue throughout the week.

With what is termed by Prof.
Frank C. Fowler, director of the play, as one of the best and most versatile casts to appear in Lexington for many seasons, the first production of Guignol this season should be an outstanding success.
The play, written by St. John Ervine, has been produced successfully for several years and has been enthusiastically received everywhere.

New Actors Take Roles

Tickets may be secured from James Gates, graduate student at the University or by calling at the ticket office of the theater. The local presentation will bring before the Lexington public several actors new to most of the patrons of Guignol and of the old Roman theater. Mrs. Helen C. Krake, who will portray the character role of Mrs. Considine, Prof. E. J. Canaday, who will take the part of Mr. Beeby, and Miss Margie McLaughlin, the inimitable "Miss Mimms," are among those who have not appeared on the local stage within the last few years.

Mrs. Durbin Has Lead

Mrs. John C. Durbin, who has the leading feminine role, gives a very charming interpretation of the title character, Mary Westlake, an actress of note, whose ideas of life are quite shocking to the provincial English family with whom she is visiting. Mrs. Durbin has had much experience in dramatic work, having had the leading role in "Stop Thief," produced by the Stagecrafters at Transylvania College. She has taken also an active part in community theater work in Goldsboro, N. C., her former home.

University students who will appear in the play are: Russell Durcan, Covington, Kentucky, a freshman and Sigma Nu pledge, who will enact the part of Jeffrey Considine; Mary Sidney Hobson, Ashland, Kentucky, a member of Chi Omega sorority, as Sheila Considine; Miss Evelyn Gall, who is a student at the University and instructor of elocution, and Cecil Walker, member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity, both of the latter having important character roles.

Faculty Members to Play

Three members of the faculty of the University will have important roles. Besides Miss McLaughlin and Professor Canaday, another instructor taking part is Prof. R. D. Mc-Intyre, of the College of Commerce, who is cast as Sir Henry Considine.
Professor McIntyre will be remembered for his appearance in Girdler Bitch's "Whip of Fire."

The other role of the play will be taken by Robert Thompson, former student at the University and one-time president of Strollers, who gives an admirable character portrayal. Mr. Thompson was active in dramas during his entire University career.

Many Rehearsals Held

Rehearsals for the play have been held every day for the past two weeks and a capable presentation is assured. Reports from the business manager of the Guignol indicate a large sale of tickets, both to University students and citizens of Lexington, the latter being handled by the Junior League of Lexington.

Monday night will be formal night at which time faculty members and guests of the players will attend.
Following the first night performance a reception will be given for the cast and for the officers of Guignol.

Tuesday night will be "Student Night" at which time "students" tickets will be sold at reduced rate.
All departments of the University are co-operating with Guignol officials in making the opening of the theater season a complete success in every respect.

"Local Color" an original musical comedy of three acts and five scenes will be presented by the Stroller organization the week of December 16, at the Guignol theater. The story was written by Frank Davidson and the lyrics and music were written by Katherine Davis and Earl King Senff, University students.

This is the first time in the history of Strollers that two plays have been presented in a single year. The second play will be staged early in the spring under the direction of Thomas L. Riley.

The play concerns Tommy Tumpkins, small town boy who goes away to college. He is warned of the veils and pitfalls of college life by all of the older generation of his home town. The second act finds him in the midst of college surrounded by all of the aforesaid evils.
The musical numbers are "I'm Making Myself All Over Just For

You," "Jumbo Stomp," "My Type of Man is You," "You'll Always Be Mine," "One Sweet Smile," "Mother Of Mine," and "I've Got Hey-He-Fever."

Tryout Dates Set

There will be eleven principals in the play supported by two choruses of eight each, one being composed of men and the other of women. Only the principal eligibles may play in the principal parts, but anyone may tryout for either of the choruses. The tryouts will be held for the principals at 3:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, November 8, in Patterson Hall. The chorus tryouts will be at 4:30 o'clock on the same day.

Toy Sandifur and his orchestra will furnish the music for the play.
Tryouts for Stroller eligibles were concluded Wednesday night. Amateur night will be held November 6, in the Men's Gymnasium.

RADIO ELEMENT IS DEVELOPED

Platinum Replacement by "Konel" in Manufacture of Radio Tubes to Save Quarter Million Dollars

Development of a new metal known as "Konel," which is credited with being much stronger than other metals at high temperatures and which can be used extensively in the moving parts of internal combustion engines and other extremely hot places, has been announced by officials of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company. The announcement followed the granting of foreign patent rights.

Originally developed by the Westinghouse Research Laboratories as a substitute for platinum in the manufacture of filaments for radio tubes, the new metal was discovered to be harder to forge than steel, and to be very tough at high temperatures, when most metals lose their strength. Engineers predict many uses for Konel.

The new metal was created by Dr. E. F. Lowry, a graduate of Ohio State University. As a substitute of platinum, Westinghouse officials are authority for the statement that Konel already is saving approximately $250,000 monthly in the manufacture of radio tubes.

Platinum cost approximately $180 per ounce, while the new substance costs only a few dollars a pound. Life of Konel filaments is approximately ten times longer than other filaments. Tubes with filaments made of the new metal are operated 175 degrees colder than tubes with platinum filaments but with the same emission, thereby giving better reception results, research engineers say.

Just Naturally Good

Good tobaccos . . . made good by Nature, not by "artificial treatment." That's the secret of OLD GOLD'S goodness

A chef may be able to make a doubtful steak taste good by artificial flavoring and sauces . . . But it's still dangerous to your stomach.

So it is with cigarette tobaccos. "Heat-treating" is useful to "set" and "sterilize" the tobaccos . . . and all cigarette makers have used it for years. But "heat-treating" cannot take the place of good tobacco in making a honey-smooth cigarette.

OLD GOLD tobaccos are naturally good. Carefully selected from Nature's best for smoothness, flavor and freedom from throat-scratch.

You have only to try a package to get the thrill of this smoother and better cigarette. That will tell you why OLD GOLD'S sales are ALREADY THREE TIMES GREATER than the combined sales of three leading brands during a like period of their existence.

Better Tobaccos make them smoother and better . . . with "not a cough in a carload"

WELCOME EDUCATORS

The Sixth Annual Educational Conference is meeting at the University today and Saturday. The delegates from institutions of education all over the United States will be the guests of the University again. Realizing that the purpose of this conference is to the furtherment of education in the colleges and universities, The Kernel, on behalf of the students, welcomes these educators to the portals of the University once more.

OUR ENGINEERING HEROES

Football fever has become widespread in the Engineering college and the young knights of Dean Anderson have come forth to demonstrate their athletic prowess on that plot of ground adjacent to the Engineering and Science buildings. At first the games were of a gentle nature, but as time passed the recreation periods have evolved into genuine grid fights.

Incidentally, many objections have poured into The Kernel office in regard to these apparently harmless contests. People walking along the walks where the "boys" are playing have been rudely smeared over the scenery by the would-be catchers of a forward pass. Of course it is all in fun, but people have often been seriously, and sometimes fatally, injured by such pranks.

USE YOUR IMAGINATION!

Where did the four hundred sit? After listening to the comments on the editorial of last week regarding the seating system at the big games, it is fitting that the same should be repeated. There should be a system whereby the students can take their friends to the game and sit with those friends.

The short Thanksgiving holiday will bring many parents and friends of students to Lexington. These people will be desirous of seeing the football game, if they can be with their friends. Otherwise they will remain away from the game, causing the athletic department to lose the price of their admission.

Considering the late date, the best and only reasonable thing to be done is to charge a small fee to the student who wishes to exchange his coupon for a reserved seat. Twenty-five or fifty cents would not be an unreasonable sum to charge for this exchange.

Considering that there are only 2400 seats for 2800 students, this method could be used to reduce the number of students sitting in the student section, and it would certainly reduce the number of outsiders who always manage to sit in the student section.

It is time something is done about the matter when a professor receives the "Queen's Degree." Shade of Cleopatra! Bring forth your Antony!

WHAT ABOUT CHEER LEADERS?

The cheer leader situation at the University is yet in need of remedy if the team is to have the support it deserves. The Kernel has commented on this idea in the last three issues of the paper and will continue to do so until remedial steps are taken.

The boys with the megaphones remedied their conduct at the game Saturday night but they did not remedy the way in which the cheers were given, nor did they raise their voices above a whisper at the top of the stands.

At the pep rally before the Washington and Lee game, Coach Harry Gamage said that he had nothing against the cheer leaders, but that they did not have the requisite voice to be heard by the persons in the stadium. The questions follow as to how can the students and spectators follow the leaders with appropriate yells and cheers unless they knew the particular cheer to be used? And how can they know that cheer unless they can hear the cheer leaders? These questions remain unanswered by the cheer leaders that have been selected by the SuKy Circle. Since they cannot answer, someone else must take up the burden of replying.

The answer is that the University needs new cheer leaders. It is admitted that a tryout before a small group is not conclusive of ability, but that is not the situation here. These leaders have had ample opportunity to show their wares to the public, and all that they have shown is willingness. That is not enough. There must be something more than that, something which will give the students a chance and by so doing give the team the support that it needs.

It is a matter of conjecture as to what would happen if a stentorian voice should suddenly roar out clearly on the air so that everyone could hear clearly. The writer thinks that the cheers would eclipse anything seen at this school since the days of Bob Creech, who could elicit enthusiasm by merely appearing on the field. And that introduces another element in this discussion, namely, that of personality.

A cheer leader must essentially have that quality which will make people want to do as he says. He must be able to lead the way in such a manner that everyone will want to follow him whether or not the team is the real objective. The cheer leaders that we have at the present time show a marked lack of this ability.

All of which leads The Kernel to the observation that we need a new set of cheer leaders who can do something more than be leaders in name only. The students want men who are capable of performing on the field as well as the team plays football. And the students mean to have them. It might as well be now as later when the season is waning into the reaches of late November.

TRADITIONS AND THE TUG OF WAR

Are traditions at the University of Kentucky soon to be a thing of the past? Such a question is the inevitable reaction to the step taken by University officials when, for the third consecutive year, the once annual tug of war contest between the first and second year students was indefinitely postponed.

That the officials are sincere in their reasons for opposing the event is not to be questioned; that the students are equally sincere in their objection to the abandonment of this time-honored custom likewise cannot be doubted.

However, when such universities as Tulane still make the tug of war an occasion for an annual holiday, one wonders why such an event is no longer possible on the University campus. The Kernel views with regret the passing of such events because they add to the color of University activities and do much to enhance the memories of college life.

CAMPUS POLITICS

In the fall of the year, with the reawakening of campus activities, the gathering of the campus political groups begins with a great fanfare of open houses, hand shaking, and the offering of figurative politicians' cigars. The co-ed element becomes more gracious near the time of elections than at any other time of the semester; the big fraternity politicians are never so genial and anxious to please, as may have been noted during the past week of class elections.

We can forgive many things of the leaders of politics at the University, but when hypocrisy enters into the spirit of student activities it is time to bring some editorial pressure to bear against the practice of fraternity and sorority politics as they exist on the campus today. If University politics is to be corrupted like those throughout America, then the oncoming voters of the nation will be even as their predecessors.

Try voting for the WORTHY candidate, who can fulfill the duties of the office!

I vowed them my honor, no more would I stray Away from my place beside that tranquil stream, Regardless of the reason I had fallen a prey. W. M. D.

This Mme. Sayba Garzouzi, a leading lawyer of Cairo who says that the women of the East are gaining emancipation, ought to know better. It all turns on the point that a man simply cannot write poetry to charm and loveliness when there is nothing to rhyme with Garzouzi.

BE COURTEOUS TO VISITORS

Why is it that some students seen never to acquire any concept of gentlemanly conduct? Of course they are supposed to be something of gentlemen when they graduate from high school and come to the University.

After a most embarrassing incident which occurred at the Washington-Lee football game, we are forced to admit that the old saying "You cannot make a silk purse out of a sow's ear" is truer than ever.

Visitors to football games have been insulted time and again, and from all indications this will continue unless some drastic step becomes necessary. Last year at the Centre game a fight was precipitated between Centre freshmen and University freshmen merely because one of our yearlings objected to a Centre man presuming to wear his freshman cap in Kentucky territory.

Is Kentucky hospitality on the decline or is this disgusting conduct due to men who are inconsiderate of the continuance of Kentucky's good name?

A letter was received by The Kernel last week from a gentleman who lives in Louisville. This gentleman is an alumnus of Washington and Lee. He has been attending Kentucky-Washington and Lee games since his graduation from that institution, and most of them have been played here in Lexington. It was natural for him to assume that visitors and alumni from other schools would not be molested should they dare to cheer for their school and wear the insignia of their Alma Mater.

But let the letter speak for itself:

The Kentucky Kernel, Lexington, Kentucky. Gentlemen:

I desire to call your attention to an incident which occurred at the Kentucky-Washington and Lee football game Saturday, and which would have gone unchallenged except for the fact that the same thing occurred at the Kentucky-Washington and Lee basketball game last winter.

The writer and his small son attended the football game and wore Washington and Lee caps. As he was leaving the grounds, some rowdy Kentucky student snatched the cap from my head and ran up the runway into the stands, across the stands and down the other runway. I followed him as fast as my legs would carry me, and in making the turn I was forced against the railing and dislocated my shoulder. It is needless to say that the Kentucky student dropped the hat when confronted with another Washington and Lee student, and beat a hasty retreat.

It was my pleasure to attend Washington and Lee for five years, and during that time I attended every football game that it played. I never saw a visiting rooter insulted or embarrassed, and I do not believe that it is the policy of the student body at your institution to approve such conduct. At Washington and Lee, this conduct would be severely dealt with, and I do not think it out of place to call to your attention so that, at least, it may not occur again.

Yours very truly, (signed) R. F. HOBSON.

That The Kernel, the representative publication of Kentucky students, should have to be the recipient of a letter of this nature, is an insult that it does not care to have repeated. After relations has almost ceased with Centre over the before-mentioned happening The Kernel has to apologize for the low-bred conduct of a few.

The student body is blamed in a case of this kind. Does it intend to let these indictments stand by the flagrant repetition of unsportsmanlike acts?

"BE YOURSELF"

Pennsylvania Graduate Student Praises Individuality

First of all, be honest in your thinking! There may be nothing intrinsically wrong in wearing your best friend's hat, or in borrowing his sweater, but there is evident mental laziness and dishonesty in parading his thoughts as your own, or borrowing his ideas without weighing them against your own convictions. Because his background has been different from yours, he will undoubtedly have something to give you which should provoke your own thinking—but not take its place. In the classroom and in your own reading you are learning to recognize, grasp hold of, and then assimilate new material, perhaps concluding with your own ideas upon the subject. Do likewise in your new campus life.

There is a strong possibility that your sense of values has already started to change in a baffling way. Perhaps it is a good thing, certainly not one about which to be worried. If you come from a home where art and literature and culture were dominant, do not cast away all that type of appreciation when you see that some of your classmates, who are also trying to be real collegians, come from an industrial background rich in other sorts of experience. In other words, keep your own identity, strengthened by an appreciation of the best in other points of view.

Finally, do not get side-tracked in this business of being yourself, to the exclusion of balanced campus life. Hunt out the field of study in which you are most interested and which you enjoy most, and put your best mental energy into it; find the sports that thrill you most, and go into them with all the enthusiasm that you have; seek the spiritual expression that makes you happiest, and place your sincerest faith in it—then you will "be yourself" both to your own glory and to the glory of your campus.

Lawyers Attempt To Outlaw Yo-Yo

Henry Clay Law Society Defeats Four Bills On Timely Issues

At the meeting of the Henry Clay Law society held last night in the College of Law smoking room, a bill condemning the state text-book commission for receiving benefit from their office, a bill condemning the participation of the United States in the proposed naval conference, and a bill concerning the law school were defeated by overwhelming majorities.

A bill, introduced by senator Duval, which provided for the expulsion of any member of the Law school caught while engaged in yo-yoing, caused a heated discussion, and a prolonged debate by senator Drake, who opposed the bill and Senator Napier, a life time member, who supported it.

Senator Napier, said "if the late Dean Lafferty could see the students of his beloved institution engaged in such an idiotic pastime as yo-yoing, he would undoubtedly entertain grave fears for the future of the Law school." He reminded the students that they were there for the purpose of becoming professionalized and should take care and not be diverted from their high ideals by passing fancies.

Senator Drake in opposing the bill, said "that it was an inalienable right of every student to engage in yo-yoing. If a fellow senator wants to yo-yo he should be allowed to yo-yo regardless of what Senator Napier might think," and in conclusion he said it is a right for which our fathers died, and for that reason, if for no other, we should not be deprived of it."

DEMOCRATS HOLD ELECTION RALLY

John Y. Brown Is Principal
Speaker at Meeting of University Club Thursday Evening, October 24

A special meeting of the University Democratic Club was held Thursday evening in the lecture room of McVey hall, Roy H. Owsley, chairman, presiding. Among the Democratic candidates who were present and addressed the meeting, were Porter Land, candidate for sheriff of Fayette county, and James A. Willmore, candidate for county attorney.

The principal speaker was John Y. Brown, alumnus of the University and local lawyer, who is a candidate for the office of city representative of Lexington. He lauded the work of the University and referred to it as "a great manufacturing center turning back an important product for the use of the Commonwealth."

In speaking of the local issues, Mr. Brown showed that the true statistics indicated an increase of six hundred fourteen thousand ($614,000.00) dollars approximately, in county resources and only four hundred thousand ($400,000.00) dollars in paid indebtedness. He challenged the Republicans to explain what had become of the other two hundred fourteen thousand ($214,000.00) dollars. As for the seventy thousand ($70,000.00) dollars that Mr. Fuller, the sheriff, claims to have saved the county, he stated that the true facts show that the laws allowed Mr. Fuller twenty-five thousand ($25,000.00) dollars and no more. So that in reality Mr. Fuller's argument has about as much basis as that of a bank employee who argues that he saves money for his bank because he does not embezzle its funds. And further Mr. Brown attacked this Republican issue with the statement that, "Whenever politicians attempt to befuddle the minds of the people, they always turn to the medium of statistics, because, given statistics, they can prove most anything."

The county jail was spoken of as "a place so gruesome that no tongue can tell its horrors and no pen depict its woes." Referring to public condemnation of this place he said, "The grand jury already has said that the pen of a Victor Hugo could hardly depict the horrors of our own County Jail, and that the horrors of the Spanish Inquisition pale into insignificance beside the conditions which existed prior to the grand jury report in our own county jail." A repetition of such conditions would probably ensue, if the management of the prison was turned back to the Republicans, he indicated.

In the matter of State issues, Mr. Brown referred to the issue of Cumberland Falls, the preservation or destruction of our State Board of Health through the "Ripper Bill," and the standing of our State educationally.

The preservation of Cumberland Falls by creating a State park was advocated, and approved by him.

Speaking of the attitude of Governor Sampson toward the State Board of Health, Mr. Brown said, "It is well known that at the last legislature the administration forces fostered the 'Ripper Bill,' the purpose of which is to oust our present State Board of Health and to allow the governor to appoint a Board of Health. The influence of the State Board of Health, acting through the County Boards of Health, reaches into the remotest home in the State of Kentucky. Our present non-partisan Board has but one motive and that to serve the interests of the people of the State. Kentucky health laws have been copied by thirty states in the union and our state ranks second only to New York in public health statistics but to serve a political purpose the governor of your state is willing to forget the health of the Commonwealth and to selfishly subject our State Board of Health to his own political intrigues and designs. In my mind this is the biggest single question before the people of the State of Kentucky, for the first wealth is health, and unless we preserve our public health rating our economic advancement will be at a standstill. Republican leaders here remarked that if they can secure possession of the State Board of Health that they will perpetuate the Republican party in power for years to come. This measure touches every human life from the crying babe in the cradle to the gray-haired sire with one foot in the grave. This is a measure that should make us forget party lines in truth and vote for Kentucky's future. I am against the 'Ripper Bill' and shall do everything in my power to thwart the design of Sampson to use our public health organization to promote his own political interests."

Mr. Brown pledged himself to do whatever he could "to lift Kentucky from her present position of 47th educationally among the states of the union to the place that she should justly hold." He stated that he would "bend every effort to secure for the University of Kentucky added funds for the building here of a University plant equal, or superior, to the plants enjoyed by the states surrounding us."

In closing, Mr. Brown said, "It is my opinion that the people of Lexington would not want their legislative representative to be a rubber stamp in the hands of any person or organization. If I am elected to the legislature, I shall be the special representative of no group or interest, but shall be the representative of the whole people of Lexington and of Kentucky and I shall vote on all legislation as I have outlined to you tonight and accordingly as my conscience tells me that the ends of justice will be served best. I shall not be swayed by fear of punishment or by hope of reward, but shall attempt to do my duty as I see it, to the end that Kentucky may be built into a commonwealth which guards the interests of the many, rather than the special privileges of the few."—Adv.

Frosh to Play Panther Cubs Today in Winchester

CUBS BOAST OF OF WIN OVER LOOLIES

BY ELBERT McDONALD

Today at 2:30 o'clock the University of Kentucky Kittens will tangle claws with the Panther Cubs of Kentucky Wesleyan at Winchester. The game will mark the second start of the season for the Kittens and the third for the Cubs.

This game will probably have an important bearing on the freshman championship of the state, as neither team has been defeated this season. The Cubs have a slight edge on the Big Green in that they have already hung two other frosh scalps to their belt while the Panthers have only one game to their credit—

a 39 to 6 victory over the strong Georgetown frosh.

On what little dope is available, both teams seem to be the cream of the freshman teams throughout the state, and the winner of the tilt this afternoon will probably be the state champs in the freshman division. However, both teams will continue to meet strong opposition before the season is over and the winner will have a hard fight to keep its slate clean.

Lookies Beaten By Cubs

Advance dope from the Wesleyan camp seems to indicate that the frosh aggregation from the Clark county metropolis is the strongest they have ever had. Last Friday the Wesleyan Cubs defeated the Lieutenants of Centre College by the score of 7 to 0. The Kittens look to be the strongest team the yearlings have had since the memorable southern champs coached by the late "Dick" Webb.

The Big Green, realizing that its schedule is not a representative one to claim the southern freshman championship, is working hard for the Wesleyan tilt, determined that no defeat shall mar their claim to the state title.

Although the Kittens have been serving as a "dummy" Centre team on which the Wildcats vent their feelings in practice, they have come out of the fray in fairly good condition so far as injuries are concerned. Now they are in a mood to give vent to something or other themselves. It is hoped that it will be at the expense of the Wesleyan frosh.

The probable lineups of both teams follow:

Kittens	Pos.	Cubs
Kreuter	LE	Wigginton
Greathouse	LT	J. Denton
Humber	LG	Stapf

Goggin	RG	Provost

Carson-Newman Is Swamped By 'Cats

Parsons Offer No Resistance To Gamage's Aces; Score Is 58 to 0

With the first team playing only one quarter of the game, the University of Kentucky Wildcats swamped Carson-Newman's Fighting Parsons last Saturday night on Stoll field to the tune of 58 to 0. Six thousand fans witnessed the game, which, although top-heavy, was loaded with thrills.

To annex the first marker, Warner Ford, of V. M. I. fame, on the first Wildcat play ran 54 yards through the entire Carson-Newman team. Thereafter, it was only a question of how many points the Kentuckians would pile up. Flowing through the Parsons like some great machine, the reserves made themselves heroes overnight. Blue-shirted players, like so many shadows, slipped, plunged, and fought their way down the illuminated field for touchdown after touchdown.

The entire Wildcat squad, with the exception of Spicer and Andrews, who were on the injured list, saw service during the game. Coach Harry Gamage surprised everyone by sending his subs in to start the game, and they likewise sprung a surprise with their show of scoring power. The regular varsity lineup played only in the third quarter.

It is impossible to say which player deserves special credit; each was outstanding in this game. So, to make a long story short—everyone had a big time Saturday night, including the Wildcats, who were, however, a bit weary after the track meet.

Score by Periods:
Kentucky ... 21 ... 6 ... 12 ... 19 ... 58
C. Newman ... 0 ... 0 ... 0 ... 0 ... 0
Scoring—Touchdowns: J. Phipps 3, Meyer 2, Urbaniak, Ford, Covington, Kelley. Extra points: Cavana 3 (dropkicks), Meyer 1 (dropkick). Substitutions—Kentucky: Entire squad (except Spicer and Andrews). Carson-Newman: unidentified.

Reserves to Play Sue Bennett Today

Fresh from a clean-out victory in their first game of the season, Coach Len Miller and his Wildcat Reserves will leave this morning by bus for London, Kentucky where they will meet the representatives of Sut Bennett College this afternoon. The time of the game is announced as 2:30 p. m.

Little is known of the London team and its record this season but the Bennett boys are expected to give the Reserves something to worry about. The teams from this school are always recognized as very strong among the smaller colleges throughout the state and the game this afternoon should be a hard one for the young Wildcats.

Coach Miller and his boys have engaged in only one other game so far this season. Last Friday, the "B" team travelled to Columbia and handed a 19 to 6 defeat to the Lindsey-Wilson eleven.

SEEN FROM THE PRESS BOX

BY ROOKS

THEM WAS THE GOOD OLD DAYS—Saturday, October 18, 1919—

"More than 200 Sophomores of the University of Kentucky 'hit the lake' in the annual tug of war Friday afternoon after pulling manfully for two minutes on the steepest side of the bank. The freshmen outnumbered them by about 60 men, and although they had the advantage of the better side of the pond, had to work hard before they got their opponents down the slippery bank and settled to their satisfaction the physical and, they claim, the intellectual supremacy of the underclassmen. This was the seventh annual tug, and it has not been won by the sophomores since the first year.

"To celebrate their victory the freshmen marched down into town immediately after the contest shrieking their battlecries and yells. Pedestrians gave way to them in throngs as they paraded down Main street to the Phoenix hotel, where they treated the crowd in the lobby to an exhibition of their tug of war costumes and class yells.

"After going through the billiard rooms and cafes of the hotel the exultant freshmen marched to the Ben Ali theater, which they captured without resistance, and later to the Strand, which they also entered. Their parade was marked by no rowdiness, and after a short time they returned in good order to the university and their homes."

In an effort to keep abreast of Governor Flem D. Sampson and his traveling system of "progress" billboards, the Student Council is looking for a substitute for the annual tug of war. To Morton Walker's gentle suggestion of a taffy pulling, we add a boys beauty contest, a community yo-yoing, a tiddle-de-wink tournament or a flag pole sitting contest.

AN ARMY MOVES SOUTHWARD—Soldiers of the Southern camps stir uneasily as rumors are whispered that the Northern menace has become more serious than was at first expected. After all these years of peaceful toil among the gridirons of the Sunny Southland, a warning has been sounded that the piepsin war in the North may spread to several sections below the Mason Dixon line. The battle cry of the Kentucky Wildcats, under the generalship of Harry Gamage, in drawing the blood of Maryville, Washington and Lee, and Carson-Newman, has sent tremors down the spine of the Southern Conference. Clemson, Tennessee, Alabama, and V. M. I., may now adopt a policy of watchful waiting. The fact that the 'Cats used only six straight plays in turning back Washington and Lee and used everybody but the freshmen and the cheer leaders in mashing Carson-Newman, leaves little space for philosophizing on the actual strength of the Kentucky varsity.

Funeral services for a prayerful group of Centre Colonels, who will die from a complication of Kentuckyites at Danville Saturday, will be conducted on Cheek Field after a football game to be won by the University of Kentucky. The Rev. Harry Gamage will officiate. Burial should be immediate.

Among other distinguished visitors at the Kentucky-Centre party will be "Fuzzy" and "Wuzzy" of the Phi Sig house. These two gentlemen will have a personal attendant and a private car and will be the envy of no one.

WHO WIN?—At this date there remains only five undefeated teams in the Southern Conference. This group includes Kentucky, Tennessee, Clemson, Tulane, and Louisiana State. Of these five, Tennessee is the only team rated as a first flight team.

Seven Southern Conference teams, Kentucky, Clemson, Vanderbilt, Tennessee, Louisiana State, Georgia, and Tulane, have not tasted defeat within the conference walls, and therefore, occupy the elite of the 1,000 per cent throne. Tennessee looms as the outstanding contender by marking time over Alabama 6 to 0 last Saturday. The Vols have been defeated but once in three years.

Here's a new one for you—Canisius College defeated St. Vincents in a football game at Buffalo, N. Y., last Sunday afternoon. The Elmer Gantry's may now add to their denunciations of the actions of college peoples.

The angel of homecoming will hover over the V. M. I. stadium at Lexington, Va. when the Wildcats meet the Flying Squadron there November 16. The old grads will be pouring in from all over the country to see Virginia Military strut her stuff, maybe.

Intramural SportsCROSS-COUNTRY

Director Sid Robinson has led his proteges through their third week of strenuous workouts preparatory to the annual fall intramural cross-country run which will be held on Stoll field between halves of the football game on November 9. About forty men are present daily to receive instructions and go through their paces.

Last Friday, the candidates underwent their first time trials over the distance of a mile and a quarter. Exceptionally good time was made in short time in the heats considering the short time in which the men have been in training. The trials were run on the cinder oval on Stoll field.

The best time of the day was made in the final heat by Butler who led his group around in 6:40. O'Bryant won a heat in 6:45 for the second-best time. Other heat winners were: Roder, 6:52; H. W. Baker, 6:55; and Cuttiss, 7:15.

More interest and enthusiasm is being shown daily by the cross-country men. The actual race will not be run on the level track but will extend over a distance of approximately two miles and will be laid out, it is hoped, on the University campus.

TENNIS

Chilling winter winds and several days of rain dropped a wrench into the intramural machinery early this week, materially impeding the progress of the tennis and golf tournaments. However, one more week of partially decent weather should see the completion of all of the matches.

The tennis singles tourney has reached the quarter-final stages. Stetley, Sigma Nu, is scheduled to meet Bill Kelly, S. A. E. in the first match. Stapleton, the Sigma Beta Xi entry, is to play Carr, Kappa Alpha, in the other match of the top bracket. The lower consignment finds Gross, Phi Delta Theta, already in the semi-finals by virtue of a forfeit in the last completed round. Emil Johnson will face DeGaris, Delta Chi, for the privilege of playing Gross.

THE COLONEL
COMMENTS

Judging from the general delapidated condition of the Kentuckian's beauty contest editor, one might venture to say that the final decision on the University beauty contest has already reached out and the "also-rans" had wreaked their vengeance on him.

A WORD TO THE WISE—If Dean Anderson insists on having any more hour-long convocations for his subjects to attend, he had better install a clock in the stage-end of Memorial Hall. Or else the efficiency of some of his engineers will be hampered by misplaced vertebrae or at least, stiff necks.

SO FOR THE 37TH TIME, DePauw played Purdue in a grid racket. And for the 36th time they were whipped. That was just last week. Back in 1889, the two Hoosier schools started their series, but only once, in 1918, have the Bollermakers been defeated—the score then was 9 to 7. That seems to me like a pretty consistent record for DePauw.

Now that the "World Serum" is over, Will Rogers and Nick Altrock will have to get back to the grind of picking pigskin probabilities. With this brace of oracles back on the job, long shot players are doomed to be joined, 'cause what they don't know or can't guess about anything, including the great rough and tumble pastime, is about six inches less than a pint.

And how about Lew Foustea's comeback to lead the American Association at bat, slugging .389 with the Indians after having once been sent back to the minors as a second-rater!

We Wonder Now—Why not an intramural tennis tournament for the faculty. Or permit the profs to engage in the regular student tourneys. Anything!—just to give them a little fresh air, exercise, and some sharp non-academic competition. The gentle volleyball games held for their benefit last year were somewhat of an insult for the more able-bodied of our intellectual giants.

Imagine the day when the University of Kentucky will have a delicious indoor swimming pool, aquatic tennis, boxing and wrestling schedules, a brand new field house, and so on—Try and imagine it!

BROKENHEARTED—That's the only way to explain the Colonel's predicament after his skirmish with figure fiend last week. Thirty-six selections, three deadlocks, eight bad guesses, gave him a batting average of .787, which ain't so hot. Never hopeful of rivaling the Demon Dopester who guesses for the Herald, the Colonel is just ready to give up this adventure in despair. The Army, Illinois, and Carnegie played in the games last Saturday and these three are about the only ones the Colonel didn't lose on. However, he did pick Tennessee to stem the Crimson Tide so there is some consolation in this.

Although this column didn't get published last week, the Colonel has a bona fide, notary public, etc. statement that his figures are true. So here goes for another try. The Colonel wishes this list of selections to be attributed to the "Statistical Sap" in order to preserve his otherwise unblemished reputation.

Bill: "Is my face dirty or is it my imagination?"
Peg: "Your face isn't—I don't know about your imagination."

To gain their present positions Stetley eliminated Lusk, 6-2, 6-1; and Kelley dropped Morris, 6-4, 7-5. Stapleton took advantage of a forfeit after eliminating Vaughn. Carr breezed over O'Bryant, 6-2, 6-4. Buddy Gross won over John Dundon in three hard sets, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4, and would have met the winner of the Combs-Hurd match but the latter pair forfeited. Johnson took the measure of Stanley Milward, 6-2, 6-2; while DeGaris was moving up by a victory over Henry Lewis, 6-3, 6-1.

The doubles tournament is ready for the semi-final round. Vaughn and O'Bryant, A. T. O. eliminated one pair of favorites, Combs and Roberts, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3. S. A. E. is still represented by Kelly and Martin who defeated Gross and Morris, Phi Delta Theta, 7-5, 5-7, 6-4, in the top half of the tourney.

Groener and Klein moved up in the lower bracket by driving over Johnson and Jones, 7-5, 6-1, and will meet Lusk and Crump for finalist honors.

GOLE

The pasture poloists have narrowed the field down to five sharpshooters and the links champion will be known within the next week. The winner of the Meredith-Maddox will match strokes with Earl King Smith, Sigma Nu, in the top round semi-finals. In the lower half of the schedule, Henry Lewis eliminated Walter Vest, 7 and 6, and will meet John Buskie who won his last match by forfeit.

HORSESHOES

The fall intramural horseshoe tourney got under way yesterday afternoon with 92 entries casting their lots and the equine moccasins. The matches are being held under the stadium on the north side of Stoll field.

TRUSTEES MAKE PARKING RULES

Executive Committee Reviews
University Automobile Problem and Financial Standing at Meeting.

The executive committee of the Board of Trustees of the University met Wednesday noon for a four-hour session. The committee was composed of Judge R. C. Stoll, chairman, Dr. Wellington Patrick, secretary, Pres. Frank L. McVey, Mr. James Park, and Mr. Louis Hillenmeyer.

Reports on financial and other business matters were discussed. The need of appropriations and other questions pertaining to the requests which are to be brought before the next legislature were reported. Several minor appointments were made. The automobile problem was taken up and it was decided that the president should formulate definite rules from the general ones suggested by the Board of Trustees.

The following is an outline of these regulations: All motor propelled vehicles, either driven or owned by students, will be expected to comply:

Cars must be parked within definite limits leaving certain places free for the use of the faculty and employees of the University.

Parking space should be left before the entrances of the principal buildings for business use and for the convenience of visitors.

The speed limit is eighteen miles per hour, but being within this limit will not excuse an accident.

Although the University will do all in its power to protect automobiles left on the campus, no responsibility will be assumed for damage to parked cars.

As in some cases the roads must be used by pedestrians, their rights must be respected.

Driving on the grass and walks is strictly forbidden.

The use of cutouts and the excessive employment of Klaxons is forbidden.

Attention must be paid to all signs directing motorists.

Cars will continue to enter by the north gate and leave by the south one.

These rules will be valid every week-day throughout the entire day.

Through these measures the Trustees hope to meet the problem of regulating the four hundred cars which are brought to the University daily.

LINSEY-WILSON IS VICTIM OF RESERVES

Coach Leonard Miller's Wildcat Reserves smashed their way to a neat 19 to 6 victory over the Lindsey-Wilson College eleven in their opening game of the season, played at Columbia, Kentucky, last Friday before five hundred spectators who sweltered in the mid-summer heat.

Early in the second quarter the Reserves gained possession of the ball in mid-field after an advantageous exchange of punts. After several short gains, Martin Brown brought the crowd to its feet by a beautiful thirty-five yard sprint around right end on a reverse play. The Reserves registered the extra point when one of the Garnet team was holding. The last touchdown came in the fourth quarter when Henderson Dysard intercepted a forward pass on his own 40-yard line and galloped unmolested to the goal.

Beehler to Speak

The thirtieth annual meeting of the Kentucky Conference of Social Work will take place at the Brown hotel, Louisville, Thursday, October 31, and Friday, November 1, with Wm. N. Beehler, instructor in sociology at the University, and president of the conference presiding.

Social workers and citizens interested in social problems from all over the state will attend the sessions. Students from the University of Kentucky will be given leave of absence to attend a day of the conference, provided they register with Dr. Harry Best or Dean Boyd in advance.

State Institutions Day will be the outstanding event of the conference and will take place Thursday, October 31. It is the day sponsored by the conference and the State Board of Charities and Corrections, in an effort to acquaint the people of Kentucky with the conditions and needs in the state institutions, and propose ways and means to improve them. The day will begin with an address by Mayor Harrison of Louisville, followed by addresses by the superintendents of all the state institutions, and ending with an appeal by Governor Sampson that the legislature and the state do better by its wards. Friday, November 1, will be Children's Day.
